

Register Today!

Debris Free Sea Conference:

Finding solutions through science and citizen action

Wednesday, November 11th

8:00 AM to 5:00 PM

Brookdale Community College
Lincroft, NJ

Celebrating 30 Years

Register at www.cleanoceanaction.org

Innovative Topics

sources and impacts of marine debris,
single use solutions, educating to reduce, citizen science,
biodegradable plastic – is it an oxymoron?
social science – why do people litter?

Renowned Speakers Include

Action Research, Adventurers and Scientists for Conservation, ANJEC, ANJEE, Bayshore Recycling, Bloomberg LP, Bridgewater Environmental Commission, The City University of New York, Clean Communities, Environmental Protection Agency, Long Beach Township Recycling, Monmouth University, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, NY/NJ Baykeeper, Raritan Valley Community College, SEA Semester, Surfrider, Sustainable Jersey, TerraCycle

Amanda Wheeler, Beach Captain for Bradley Beach with artist Alexis Cuozzo

Little Sweepers Noah and Chase helping to clean Island Beach State Park clean.

Atlantic City Electric Team of Volunteers in AC

Beach Captains at Lavallette Beach

Beach Captains at Grant Avenue, Seaside Heights

For additional questions regarding the Debris Free Sea Conference, please contact Catie Tobin at Education@CleanOceanAction.org or 732-872-0111.